Helpful Information for Nominators: Making Your Case

The nominators need to provide expertise and an informed opinion to the jury.

The full responsibility for 'making the case' rests with the nominator.

Finalists and the Masterwork will be selected by a peer jury. Each member will have some degree of cross disciplinary expertise as well as a close association with one or more of the eligible categories/disciplines. Should it be required in special situations, additional information may be provided to the jury through additional peer counsel sought by the Masterworks Foundation on behalf of the jury members. However, as nominator, your nomination is best served if you assume full responsibility for educating the jury as to the merits of the work you nominate.

It is crucial that you make your case with the following in mind.

- ORIGINALITY
 - Does this piece display a new concept, or approach?
 - What is fresh or unique about this work and/or its presentation?
- PROFESSIONAL MATURITY
 - Has this work been created and/or presented according to the highest level of excellence in its art form? Is there a notable degree of sophistication in its creation and/or presentation?
 - Has the work contributed to the historical development of the art form?

 - Does this work advance the contemporary practice of the art form?
- IMPACT AND RECOGNITION, LOCALLY, NATIONALLY AND/OR INTERNATIONALLY
 - What impact did the public presentation make? How widely was it received? What type of media coverage and/or peer review and /or audience support has it garnered? Has the work received other accolades/awards? Or perhaps the work has been the subject of vigorous debate and it has garnered notoriety as well as praise?
 - Provide examples of the best media coverage. Any comprehensive list of media coverage should indicate source and date. If referencing the comments of individuals, be sure to explain who they are and why their opinion should be highly valued.
- CONTRIBUTION TO NOVA SCOTIA CULTURE, OR NOVA SCOTIAN ARTISTS, AND/OR THE PEOPLE OF NOVA SCOTIA
 - Does this work impact Nova Scotia, or a part of Nova Scotia in some way? Does it place a spotlight on some aspect of Nova Scotian culture or on one or more of its citizens? Will it impact the way others see or perceive Nova Scotia?
 - Be sure to address how Nova Scotia, and/or a geographic area within Nova Scotia, and/or a segment of the Nova Scotian public, and/or another's perception of Nova Scotia may change, and/or benefit, and/or culturally advance/mature because of this work?
